MAY BASKET PARTY

Given Family of E. C. Jewett Friday Evening.

The family of Station Agent E. C. Jewett were remembered by a May basket party from Cliff street Friday evening. They left some of the daintiest creations of the season: even Miss Fash, who is four weeks old this morning, was remembered. A barbed wire fence that separates Washington place from Beech Drive showed the effects of the ladies getting over and through it. The ladies from Norwich Town Monday evening stepped clear of this.

POTPOURRI AT OSGOOD MEMORIAL

Given for Benefit of Parish House Association of Park Church and was a Decided Success.

The Potpourri entertainment, which was given Friday evening in the parlors of the Osgood Memorial for the benefit of the Parish House association, was a great success. There was a large attendance, a novel entertainment, a jolly good time and a lot of money in the treasurer's box. The parlors were filled with the stars and with small tables which looked very attractive, even before the guests arrived, with their shining canes and beautiful floral decorations of apple blossoms and other spring flowers. Most of these tables were engaged in advance by small parties who enjoyed the programme and the à la carte service in leisurely fashion. Mrs. John F. Rogers had charge of the dining room and it bore evidence of her skill and efficiency. The menu comprised chicken salad, potpourri sandwich, ham sandwich, ice cream, cake, coffee, chocolate, fruit punch served by the refreshment committee. Mrs. Henry T. Arnold, chairman, Mrs. W. S. C. Perkins, Mrs. Oliver L. Johnson and Miss Alice W. Cogswell. Assisting them were Mrs. Adam Reid, Mrs. Joseph W. Albert, Mrs. Michael, Mrs. Albert, Mrs. William C. Orndall and Mrs. Frank H. Hempstead. Miss Amy L. Cogswell had charge of the waitresses, these being Mrs. William Cogswell, Mrs. Job Taylor, Mrs. Richard Lewis, Miss Annie E. Vaughn, Elizabeth Turnbull, Anna E. Ely, Louise C. Howe, Mary C. Avery, Eugenia Palmer, Sarah McKee, Mildred Wrightman, Lillian Jewett and Nellie Leving.

There was also a candy table of good dimensions presided over by Miss Catherine Isbister. Robert Fletcher, doorkeeper and Scott Edna Stuart assisted the treasurer, Mrs. Symington. The programme committee were Mrs. Edward E. Perry, chairman, Mrs. Zebulon R. Robbins, Miss Alice W. Cogswell, Mrs. J. Dana Coit, Mrs. Charles Tyler Bard and Miss Elizabeth Pullen. Assisting them were Mr. Dana Coit and William Perry, while Paul Latham and Edmund Hill were stage helpers. The programme was continuous from 7 until 10, varied and attractive throughout and most of it repeated. The orchestra—Humphrey Almy, Irene Gregson.

OPPOSES A DIVISION
Rev. Mr. Scoville, of Episcopal Diocesan Committee, Against Move—Decision Next Week.

Wednesday's New Haven Journal-Courier said: Expressing himself in the most decisive manner, last evening, Rev. Charles O. Scoville, of Trinity church, a member of the special committee on "Division or other relief for the bishop," appointed at the last diocesan convention, stated that he was not in favor of a division of the Protestant Episcopal diocese. The committee meets early next week and it will then be known what action it will recommend to the convention of the diocese which meets here June 14, in Trinity church.

Mr. Scoville stated that he was not in favor of a division for the reason that no satisfactory division could be made of a diocese constituted like the Connecticut diocese. He was afraid the convention might do something which it would be hard to undo if it decided on any such summary action as that. He believed that the bishop should have relief in some way, but would not divide the diocese in order to do it. Three meetings of the committee have been held and the result of the next is awaited with much interest.

Rev. William A. Bixley, of St. Thomas', when consulted on the matter, also said he was not in favor of a division.

"It is a matter of sentiment as much as anything with me," said he. "I should not like to see the old mother diocese divided. Furthermore, Connecticut does not lend itself to division as readily as some other states, and it would be difficult to decide where the line of division should come."

It is understood the committee are divided on the matter and the outcome will be interesting.

The Ford

MODEL "T" $950 FULLY EQUIPPED

Some of the distinct advantages outside of the reliable every day usefulness of the Model T are those referring to economy of maintenance. The Model T Car will average from 25 to 30 miles on a gallon of gasoline, will run as high as 15,000 miles on a set of tires—the average has been over 10,000 miles; and then the tires will cost less to replace because the light weight car calls for smaller sized tires, and will require fewer replacements at a lower price than any other car. This is the car that does not require a $5,000.00 bank account to buy, a $10,000.00 income to maintain and a technical education to keep it in order. We will unload another carload Monday.
